CALL FOR PAPERS

Hungarian Studies Association of Canada (HSAC)
Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada,
23-24 May 2009

We are inviting proposals for papers to be presented at the HSAC annual meeting. Papers presenting original, unpublished research on any topic or period in Hungarian literature, cinema, art, theatre, music, history, politics, language and language pedagogy are welcome. Papers may be presented in English, French or Hungarian.

The HSAC meets as part of the annual Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences of Canada, organized by the Canadian Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences (www.fedcan.ca). The largest multidisciplinary meeting in Canada, the Congress hosts the meetings of dozens of scholarly associations during an 8-day period, bringing together scholars from across Canada and around the world. The overall theme of the 2009 Congress is "Capital Connections / Nation, terroir, territoire." We are therefore proposing a special panel along the lines of the theme of the Congress, in relation to Hungary and Hungarians: "Identity, diaspora, minorities and multiculturalism." Please indicate whether you wish to have your proposal considered for inclusion in this panel.

A copy of your proposal or outline (maximum 600 words) should be in the hands of the program chair no later than 10 January 2009; late proposals will not be considered. Early submissions are welcome. We prefer that proposals be submitted electronically, if possible. The proposals will be assessed by the program committee. Please include your contact information with your proposal. Decisions will be announced by the end of January.

Please note that presenters must be paid-up HSAC members at the time of their presentation. (In order to become a member, go to www.hungarianstudies.org – or call the Treasurer at 416-447-3247.)

Submissions and inquiries should be addressed to:
