

HSAC TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL CONFERENCE

at the Congress of the Social Sciences and Humanities
May 31 - June 1, 2008

University of British Columbia (Vancouver)
Buchanan Complex D 222

(Chairpersons will be announced.)

May 31 (Saturday):

- A.M. 9.00 - 9.15: Opening Remarks by the President.
- 9.15 – 10.25: Magyarország - ma (Hungary Today) I.
- 9.15 - 9.50: Andor Tari (Emeritus, University of Guelph): "A tehetség magyar országai gondozásáról."
- 9.50 - 10.25: Somorjai Ágnes (Magyar Élet): "Hírközlés mint véleményformálás."
- 10.25 - 10.40: * * * COFFEE BREAK
- 10.40 – 11.50: Magyarország - ma (Hungary Today) II: Közérzet és egészség.
- 10.40 – 11.15: Hargitai Mária (Magyar Orvosi Kamara): "Közérzet. A magyar egészségügyről."
- 11.15 – 11.50: Emese Ivan (Ball State University) and Adrian Pandev: "Natural Heritage in International Context."
- P.M. 11.50 - 1.00: L U N C H B R E A K
- 1.00 – 2.10: Zenetörténet (From the History of Hungarian Music).
- 1.00 – 1.35: Térey-Smith Mária (Washington State University): "Az Esterházy hercegi család udvari zenekara a XVIII. században."
- 1.35 – 2.10: Bogyó-Homor Annamária (Toronto): "Elkésett megemlékezés Kodály Zoltánról."
- 2.10 – 3.20 : Economics and Politics.
- 2.10 – 2.45: Eva Tomory (University of Pécs): "Nobel Prize Winner Hungarian Economists."
- 2.45 – 3.20: Lisa Turkewitsch (University of Toronto): "Europeanisation and Regionalisation in Hungary."
- 3.20 - 3.40: * * * COFFEE BREAK
- 3.40 – 5.25: Hungarians in Canada.
- 3.40 – 4.15: Nandor F. Dreisziger (Royal Military College): "Aristocratic

- 4.15 – 4.50: Visitors from Hungary to Canada in the 19th Century.”
Enikő Pittner (University of Toronto): “Hungarian Canadian Historiography.”
- 4.50 – 5.25: Judy Young-Drache (Canada-Hungary Educational Foundation): “Contemporary Hungarian-Canadian: The Challenges of Setting Up a Website Devoted to the Hungarian-Canadian Cultural Identity.”

June 1 (Sunday):

A.M. 9.15 - 10.25: Szóbeli és tárgyi művészet (Literature and Art) I.

- 9.15 - 9.50: Agatha Schwartz (University of Ottawa): “The Hybrid Identity of Juliane Déry.”
- 9.50 - 10.25: Simándi Ágnes (Toronto): “Filozófus a raktárban: Hamvas Béláról.”
- 10.25 - 10.40: * * * COFFEE BREAK

P.M. 10.40 - 12.25: Szóbeli és tárgyi művészet II.

- 10.40 – 11.15: Kossuth Éva (Tárogató): “A magyar nyelv használata Faludy György költészetében.”
- 11.15 – 11.50: Kenyeres János (ELTE): “A Nyugat alkonya.”
- 11.50 – 12.25: Les Jozsa (Forintek): “Monumental Woodcarving as a Branch of Hungarian Folk Art.”

12.25 - 1.30: L U N C H B R E A K (Working lunch for the Executive.)

- | | | |
|--------------|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1.30 - 2.30: | Whither, HSAC? | Hogyan tovább, KMtT? |
| | Discussion about the future of our Association | Megbeszélés a Társaság jövőjéről. |

2.30 - 4.00: HSAC General Meeting.

Interested non-members are welcome, but only members who have paid their membership fee for 2008 are eligible to vote.

Social Program: Társasági esemény:

5 - 7: Presidential Reception (only for 5 - 7: Rektori fogadás (csak beiratregistered participants). között résztvevőknek).

Conference Committee: Andor Tari (chairman), George Bisztray, Eva Kossuth (local organizer), Judy Young.

SPEAKERS: Please bring a few lines about yourself for your section chairperson who will introduce you (even if you read papers at previous conferences). Each speaker has 35 minutes to deliver the paper and answer questions. The recommended management of time is: 25/30 minutes reading, 5/10 minutes questions and answers.

Please confirm your participation as soon as possible.

A reminder: notify the conference organizers if you need audiovisual equipment. If you want to change the spelling of your name, affiliation, or the title of your paper, notify George Bisztray.